

Christina L. Beharry

Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP, Washington, D.C., United States

Christina Beharry is a Partner in Foley & Lardner's International Arbitration Practice in Washington, D.C., where she focuses on public international law, investor-State and commercial arbitration, and trade and investment policy. Ms. Beharry leads complex cases involving multi-million dollar claims and works extensively with quantum experts on the valuation of businesses and the quantification of compensation, including for environmental damages and adverse human health impacts. She publishes regularly on these topics and is the editor of a book titled Contemporary and Emerging Issues on the Law of Damages and Valuation in International Investment Arbitration (Brill Nijhoff). Prior to joining the private sector, Ms. Beharry was counsel in Global Affairs Canada where she represented the Government of Canada in investment disputes brought under NAFTA Chapter 11 and assisted in the negotiation of bilateral investment treaties. She holds law degrees from the London School of Economics, Cambridge University, and Columbia University.

Edna Sussman

Independent Arbitrator, Scarsdale, NY, United States

Edna Sussman serves full-time as an arbitrator and has been appointed as the Distinguished ADR Practitioner in Residence by the Fordham University School of Law. She started her career as an associate and litigation partner at the international law firm of White & Case. Over the past 15 years she has served as an arbitrator in well over 300 arbitrations and as a mediator in well over 200 mediations in both domestic and international complex commercial disputes.

Ms. Sussman serves on leading ADR panels around the world and has conducted arbitrations under many institutional rules and in ad hoc arbitrations. Ms. Sussman has served as one of six arbitration trainers nationwide for the American Arbitration Association's new arbitrators and for advanced training for the ICDR, as the President of the College of Commercial Arbitrators, on the board of the American Arbitration Association, as Chair of the New York International Arbitration Center and Chair of the AAA-ICDR Foundation. She has published and lectured extensively on arbitration and mediation and wins annual recognition for her work as an arbitrator and mediator in many rankings including being listed as Band 1 in Chambers Global for Arbitration, Who's Who of International Arbitration, and Mediation, Best Lawyers, and Super Lawyers. Ms. Sussman was awarded the 2020 Neutral of the Year Award by the National Association of Distinguished Neutrals (NADN). The American Arbitration Association awarded Ms. Sussman the 2021 Vision Award for her work founding and chairing the AAA-ICDR Foundation. Chambers & Partners Global lists Edna as one of the Most In-Demand Arbitrators; Global Market Leaders for International Arbitration.

Ms. Sussman is honored to have recently been designated pursuant to Article 13(2) of the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States, by the President of the World Bank Group, Mr. Ajay Banga, in his capacity as ex officio Chairman of the Administrative Council of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), to serve on the Panel of Conciliators maintained by the Centre.

Isabel Santos Kunsman

Partner & Managing Director, AlixPartners, Washington, DC, United States

Isabel Santos Kunsman is a Managing Director at AlixPartners, where she co-leads the firm's International Arbitration practice from Washington, D.C. She is a highly accomplished expert witness specializing in quantum, valuation, and damages assessment in high-stakes investor-state and commercial disputes across ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, and domestic jurisdictions.

With over 25 years of experience in finance and more than 20 years exclusively as a consulting and testifying expert in quantum matters, Ms. Kunsman has been retained in 55+ disputes serving as lead testifying expert on 25+ matters. She brings deep expertise in complex valuations across multiple sectors, including infrastructure, energy and oil & gas, mining, banking and financial services and real estate.

Ms. Kunsman has been regularly retained on behalf of both investors and states in disputes involving expropriation claims, regulatory proceedings, non-expropriatory breaches, breach of contract, and M&A disputes. Her experience spans valuation of complex financial instruments, concessions, infrastructure assets, and multi-sectoral enterprises across emerging markets and developed economies in Europe, Latin America, Asia, and Africa.

She holds an MBA with the highest distinction from Georgetown University and a Bachelor of Science in Economics and Finance from Georgetown University's Walsh School of Foreign Service. A dual Spanish and U.S. citizen, Ms. Kunsman is fluent in Spanish and English and regularly provides expert testimony in both languages.

James Hosking

Founding Partner, Chaffetz Lindsey LLP, New York, NY, United States

Originally from New Zealand, James Hosking is a founding partner of New York-based Chaffetz Lindsey LLP and leads the firm's international arbitration practice. He has acted as counsel in more than 200 disputes under all the leading arbitral rules, and sat as an arbitrator in some 60 commercial or investor-state cases. A significant part of James' practice involves disputes in the energy sector, particularly with a nexus to Latin America and/or Asia. He is a member of the Governing Board of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration, a Fellow of the Arbitrators and Mediators Association of New Zealand, and Vice President of the Court of the Saudi Centre for Commercial Arbitration. With respect to the ICC, James was co-chair of the ICC's Task Force on Emergency Arbitration Proceedings and of the ICC Advanced Arbitrator Academy for North America. James has also published widely on international arbitration, including as the co-author of the leading commentary on the ICDR International Rules, and has taught as an adjunct professor at various law schools in Asia and the Americas.

Tara Singh

Senior Managing Director, FTI Consulting, Toronto, Canada

Tara Singh is a Senior Managing Director at FTI Consulting in the Economic Consulting Practice. Her work spans U.S., Canadian, and international disputes. Tara is a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) and Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE). She is a holder of the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) designation from the American Institute of CPAs and the Chartered Business Valuator (CBV) designation. Since 2006, she has specialized in quantifying economic damages and valuing businesses and other assets, particularly in complex commercial litigation and arbitration. Her experience spans breach-of-contract disputes, intellectual property matters, class actions, and other financial litigation. Tara has testified as an expert witness in litigation, arbitration, and mediation, and has provided deposition evidence in U.S. litigation. She has prepared numerous expert and valuation reports for submission to courts, arbitral panels, and regulatory bodies. Since 2023, Tara has been recognized by Who's Who Legal in the categories of Arbitration Expert Witnesses and Consulting Experts – Quantum of Damages.

Thomas C. Childs

Counsel, King & Spalding LLP, New York, NY, United States

Tom Childs focuses on international arbitration and litigation. He represents clients in U.S. litigation involving the enforcement of arbitral awards and judgments, general commercial disputes, and cross-border discovery. He also represents clients in international commercial arbitration and investment treaty arbitration.

Tom is admitted to the New York bar, holds an advanced law degree from the University of Paris I, and regularly handles disputes under both common law and civil law systems. He speaks French fluently and has conversational ability in both German and Arabic.

Before joining King & Spalding, Tom practiced litigation with Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York and clerked for Chief Judge Edward R. Korman of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Paul di Pietro

Counsel, ICC International Court of Arbitration, United States

Paul is Counsel at the North America case management team of the International Court of Arbitration at International Chamber of Commerce.

Originally qualified in Venezuela, Paul joined the ICC International Court of Arbitration in 2015 as Deputy Counsel for Latin America, Spain, and Portugal, and was stationed at the ICC headquarters in Paris.

In July of 2020, Paul assumed the role of ICC Counsel for North America, where he currently leads the case management team based in New York City. In this capacity, he oversees a diverse portfolio of over 200 pending arbitration proceedings spanning various sectors, including energy, construction, telecommunications, and life sciences.

Prior to his tenure at the ICC, Paul clerked with prominent multinational firms working in international arbitration hubs including Paris, Geneva, and London. Paul studied law in Venezuela, Spain, and France and holds a Master's degree in Economic Law from the Paris Institute of Political Studies.